ARTICLE IX

Upon a merger or consolidation of the Association with another corporation as provided in its Articles and Bylaws, its property, rights and obligations may, by operation of law, be transferred to another surviving or consolidated association or corporation, or, alternatively, the property, rights and obligations of another corporation may, by operation of law, be added to the property, rights and obligations of the Association as a surviving corporation pursuant to any merger. The surviving or consolidated corporation may administer the covenants and restrictions established upon any other properties as one scheme. No such merger or consolidation, however, shall affect any revocation, change or addition to the covenants established by their Declaration within the Property, except as hereinabove provided.

Section 7. Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by legislation, judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.
